

As of the current date, I have not received any scholarships nor have I submitted my work or applications to Sun Pharma Science Foundation.

I want to clarify that I have not been awarded any scholarships earlier in this work anywhere, whether they be from external organizations or academic institutions. Furthermore, I have not submitted my application materials to any scholarship programs or competitions. This is to ensure complete transparency regarding my scholarship application status.

I remain committed to pursuing financial assistance for my educational endeavors and am actively exploring scholarship opportunities that align with my academic and career goals.
