TO WHOMSOEVER IS CONCERNS

It gives me great pleasure to nominate Mr. Arihant Kumar Singh for the prestigious Sun Pharma Science Foundation Science Scholar Award (Pharmaceutical Sciences) 2021.

Mr. Arihant Kumar Singh pursued his (M. Pharm.) in Pharmaceutics from MAEER's Maharashtra Institute of Pharmacy, Pune. He is pursuing PhD under my supervision in the area of Pharmaceutical Sciences since August 2018 and I have been interacting with him very closely on regular basis.

He has always been very earnest and dedicated research scholar in the lab and has acquired sufficient experimental skills in the area his research work. Arihant has gained considerable experience in the last 3 years in the field of polymer synthesis, analytical techniques, nano formulations and animal studies. He also has a good hands-on experience on various analytical instruments, in vitro cell culture and in vivo animal models. His scientific caliber is well reflected by his international publications and 03 Indian patents to his credit (2 patents are published and under examination with one filed for PCT application). He has good presentation skills and works comfortably in groups or alone. His initiative, drive and enthusiasm would go a long way in achieving the best in his field of interest.

I strongly nominate Mr. Arihant Kumar Singh for the prestigious Sun Pharma Science Foundation Science Scholar Award (Pharmaceutical Sciences) 2021.

Thanking You,

Yours Sincerely

Dr. Anupama Mittal
