

Justification details

I am writing to nominate Dr.Swapnil D Bhowate for the clinical research fellowship program at Sun Pharma science foundation. I have had the pleasure of working with Dr.Swapnil Bhowate for the past few months as their Service delivery manager in the Medical writing domain at Cognizant technology solution. During this time, I have been consistently impressed with his interest and dedication to research, his strong academic record, and his commitment to patient care.

Dr.Swapnil Bhowate has a demonstrated passion for research. He has published several papers in peer-reviewed journals, and he was previously worked on multiple clinical trial that may help peoples in society to significantly improve on there conditions. His research interests are well-aligned with the goals of the clinical research fellowship program at Sun Pharma science foundation, and I am confident that he would be an asset to the program.

In addition to his research skills, Sun Pharma science foundation is also an excellent Medical writer and clinician. He is compassionate, caring, and a person who always puts the needs of the patient first. He is also a gifted teacher who already worked in Maharashtra University of Health Sciences, Nashik. He is always willing to share knowledge with others.

I believe that Dr.Swapnil Bhowate would be an outstanding candidate for the clinical research fellowship program at Sun Pharma science foundation. He has the good Medical writing experience, research skills, clinical skills, and teaching skills that are essential for success in this program. I highly recommend him for this fellowship.

Sincerely,

Mr.Suresh Goli
