

The research work under reference has not been given any award in the past. Most of the work mentioned here is primarily done by the students and the post-doctoral fellows working with me at National Brain Research Center. They have done this work with direct guidance from me, and also, I have generated necessary funding to execute this research program. There are few publications where I have collaborated with others, there also we have contributed significantly both experimentally and intellectually.

ANIRBAN BASU

July 12th, 2023

NBRC, Manesar, Haryana-122052