

To Whomsoever it may Concern

I, Prof. Bhavuk Garg, hereby declare that the research work under reference has not been supported by any fellowship. The research work has been independently conducted without any fellowship.

The contribution of others associated with this research has been duly acknowledged. However, I confirm that the primary intellectual input, experimental design, data analysis, and interpretation, as well as the drafting of the manuscript, were predominantly undertaken by me.

This statement is made in good faith and to the best of my knowledge.
