TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

I, Dr Sunil K. Arora, Professor of Immunology in Dept. of Immunopathology at PGIMER, Chandigarh, hereby state that the research work being presented here for the Sun Pharma Science Foundation Research Awards 2023, has not been considered for any other award previously.

I also specify that all the work presented here has been conducted in my laboratory under my direct supervision. The co-authors in these publications have been my PhD students, mainly who actually performed the experiments in the laboratory and also my clinical collaborators, who contributed to recruitment of patients and procuring the clinical samples used in these studies.
